BIEBER-FEVER »

Singer Justin Bieber continued to gain notoriety. The former YouTube sensation produced four hit singles. Bieber also set out on his first national tour, made guest appearances on Saturday Night Live and CSI, and was named Artist of the Year at the American Music Awards.

TRAGEDY IN TUCSON »

U.S. Rep. Gabrielle Giffords of Arizona was shot in the head and a federal judge and five others were killed when a gunman opened fire during a public event in Tucson hosted by Giffords. Fourteen people, including Giffords, were wounded at the event she was holding to make herself available to citizens.

⚡ PARTY BY THE BAY

After shortstop Edgar Renteria slugged a dramatic home run in the 7th inning of Game 5, the San Francisco Giants finished off an improbable victory in the 2010 World Series against the Texas Rangers. It was the first championship for the team since it moved to San Francisco in 1958.

THE DECISION »

NBA superstar LeBron James infamously announced his intentions to leave his hometown team, the Cleveland Cavaliers, and sign a free-agent deal with the Miami Heat on an ESPN special called "The Decision." The program drew high TV ratings, with wildly different reactions from fans, and James' move led to a 30% increase in NBA viewers.

⚡ A FINAL CHAPTER FOR HARRY POTTER

The film version of the final chapter in the Harry Potter saga of books, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, was broken up into two parts. The first movie was released in November to much fanfare, with the conclusion scheduled (once and for all) by summer 2011.

2010-2011

« SAFELY RESCUED

Thirty-three Chilean miners were rescued after being trapped 69 days in a collapsed mine. During that time, food, supplies and medicine were sent down while officials, including NASA scientists, figured out how to get them out. The world watched the miners' daily activities and their dramatic rescue one-by-one in a capsule.

» NO TEXTS BEHIND THE WHEEL

More states began to outlaw text messaging while driving. By the end of 2010, the act was prohibited in 23 states. Other states were considering texting laws targeting drivers under 18. Some studies showed texting while driving to be potentially as dangerous as drunk driving.

» MIDTERM ELECTION SWITCH

Still worried about the economy and jobs, voters on Nov. 2 elected a Republican Party majority to the House of Representatives after putting Democrats in office just two years ago. Some Tea Party members were elected, and Rep. Nancy Pelosi, D-Calif., lost the House Speaker position. Democrats kept their Senate majority.

» U.S. SOLDIERS ON DUTY

While fewer than 50,000 U.S. soldiers remained in Iraq, about 98,000 of them continued to fight the Taliban in Afghanistan. More than 470 U.S. soldiers were killed in Afghanistan in 2010, and U.S. officials considered moving the troop withdrawal date from 2011 to 2014.

« FINALLY, A ROYAL WEDDING

After seven years of dating, Britain's Prince William and Kate Middleton set an April 29, 2011, wedding date. William, second in line to the throne, gave Middleton the sapphire-and-diamond ring given to his mother, Diana.

STUDENT LIFE

Having a lot of homework causes HHS students stress. "I am stressed from boys and classes with homework," said senior Angelica Reyes.

Preparing for the future can stress students. "What stresses me the most was getting all my stuff for graduation," said senior Andrea Rudd.

Stress!!!

Relaxation can help relieve stress. "Teens need to find ways to relax and relieve tension, to be themselves so they will do better in the long run," said Douglas Klukken, guidance.

Gahhhhhhhhhh! Help Me!

Stress! It's the worst thing imaginable. How does it affect Hobart students? For high school students, drama and homework can cause stress for teens. Drama can really lower students self-esteem and put a major downer on their life. "School is fun until you get home and realize how much homework you have to do in such little time," said senior Tiffany Rubush. Teachers are there to try to help students solve stress-related problems like homework

Teachers try to ease the pain and stress of school is Mr. Brent Vermeulen, PLTW. "Worrying is like a rocking chair; it gives you something to do but doesn't get you anywhere," said Vermeulen.

Chilling back and taking a load off are senior Eric Hein, sophomore Kendell Buckley, sophomore Jasmine Suarez, and sophomore Jessi McKnight.

Showing off their new dance moves are seniors Jeremy Cuadra, Amanda Coons, Taylor James and sophomore Ian Drobac.

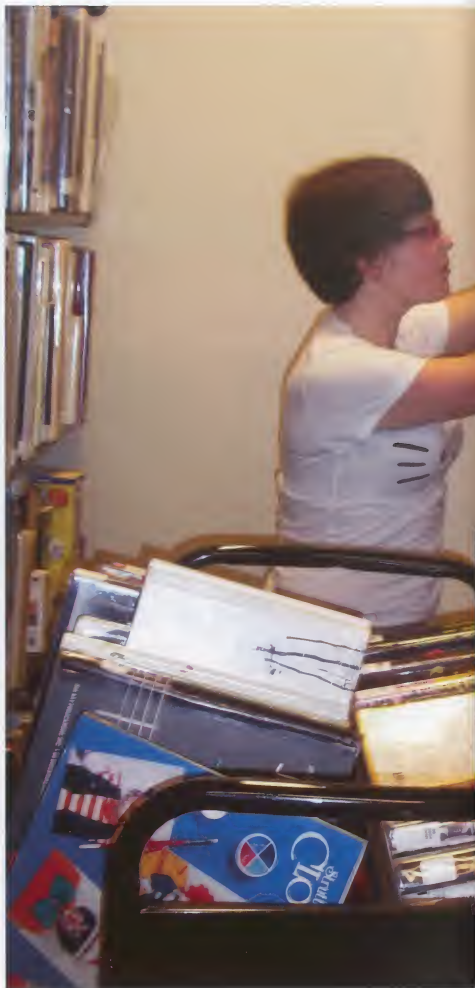

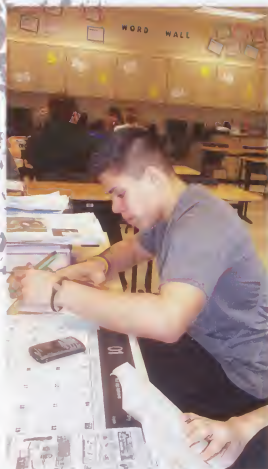

Relaxing and cooling off at semi-formal is senior Cortnee Owen and her date, Hunter Ruzbasan

Dancers raise the roof at the semi-formal

Grading quizzes during his internship is junior Fernando Romero.

Above: Working in the Brickie Stop are senior Michael Bodamer and junior Cody Baldwin. The Brickie Stop is often run by student interns.

Right: Senior Colleen Mourer restocks the shelves in the library.

Jobs and Internships

Jobs and internships are an important part of student life at Hobart High School. In order to earn extra cash, many students work in the local community at numerous places like the local tanning salons, eateries, and businesses. It's hard to visit any local business without seeing a familiar Hobart High School face!

In addition to working, many students take Mrs. Roach's internship class. Students intern both inside and outside of the building gaining valuable work experience. Many students intern in the Brickie Stop, a student-run business inside the school, as well as for teachers throughout the building.

Internships and jobs, while an important part of many HHS students' lives, often can help students make future career decisions. Students can find out early on that a career is not for them or they can be inspired to pursue that particular career.

Above: Students in the crowd watch as a drunk driving scene unfolds at the Every 15 Minutes presentation. Juniors and seniors watched the scene play out in the faculty parking lot.

Partying after a fake prom at the hotel are sophomores Ashley Scanlon and Forrest McCollum. Students watched this on the screen in the auditorium.

Drawing on their friend are sophomore Ashley Scanlon and junior Briana Dickinson. The girls showed some of the negative effects of drinking.

Laying out on the stretcher is senior Taylor Hatch, who played the drunk victim. Hatch's mother even participated in Every 15 minutes.

A drunk driving crash scene is shown in the auditorium in the auditorium.

Playing the part of lives lost due to drunk driving is the Every 15 Minutes cast. Every 15 minutes a student was taken from class by the Grim Reaper.

Pledges not to drink and drive fill the casket at lunch. Students were able to fill out the sheets and vow to make better decisions.

Candles placed by the coffin in the auditorium represent lives lost by drunk driving. Members of the cast took turns lightening the candles and reading real life stories.

Every 15 Minutes

Walking through the hallways with a dark red fitted t-shirt and dark blue designer jeans is junior Charles Turner. Designer jeans offer the right comfortable fit while giving a casual and relaxed look.

Strutting through the halls with a pink designer class shirt and black boots to match is sophomore Michelle Thomas. When winter was fast approaching, boots, especially Uggs, were dependable to focus on comfort, fashion and durability.

Right: Strolling down the hallway wearing a purple fitted jacket and a faded blue jean skirt with leggings is senior Jasmine Campbell. Today leggings are a very hot fashion item that brings warmth and comfort to female's outfits with style.

Fashion in the halls of Hobart High

Rocking the yellow v-neck graphic tee with the blue faded skinny jeans along with the shiny silver leather purse is senior Alexys Andrews. Skinny jeans have been THE fashion trend of the last couple years. They are meant to reveal a girls shape and originated in the 1950s.

Opening his locker wearing a black polo shirt and black colored jeans is senior Anthony Cordova. Polo shirts come in all different styles and colors meant for a cool kickbacked look. They're not just for preppies now. Polos range from soft suede, jersey, classic cotton pique and much more.

Fashion Trends

Sophomore Julissa Colon passes through the halls with a gray loose fitted v-neck shirt along with some black leggings. Leggings worn with a loose and longer shirt is the most attractive way to wearing leggings. It seems to give off a flattering look regardless of the body type.

Passing to her next class wearing a plaid pattern buttoned up long sleeve with a white tank top underneath along with blue jeans is sophomore Megan Geary. Today plaid is so trendy for the fall with the different colors to choose from and different styles to wear.

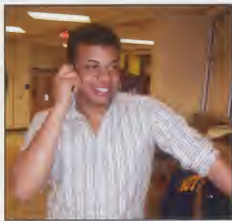

Dancing at the Homecoming dance is senior Kenneth Givens with a black vest and a gray striped button up.

Along with him is his date sophomore Chardanay Stewart in a purple dress along with purple eye shadow. Homecoming fashion was casual dressy.

Boys wore dress clothes and girls opted for short dresses.

Isaiah Hayes sports a striped button-down shirt outside of the Media Center. For a more dressed up look, some guys chose button-downs in either stripes or solids.

Right: Students in Mrs. Osika's class prepare boxes of food for the Hobart Food Pantry.

Volunteering

Students at Hobart High School volunteer in many different ways. Organizations and clubs like Key Club, National Honor Society and Psychology Club volunteer in the neighborhood by organizing food drives and raking leaves.

Students also help in the numerous philanthropy races and walks in the area like the Relay for Life, Phi Beta Psi Cancer Walk and the Lupus Walk. Students passed out water, helped register participants, organized games and directed participants where to go.

Besides organizations, there are also students who volunteer. Some volunteer by babysitting for free while others volunteer at the Hobart Food Pantry like senior Sara Jackson. Whether it's with a group or just an individual, every little bit of volunteering helps the community.

Goofing off during the Key Club Convention are members of Hobart High School's Key Club. Key Club is a student organization that is about volunteering in the school and community.

What's hot?!

What's not?!

"It seems like everyone has a touch screen these days! No one ever uses their house phones anymore."
-sophomore Ashley Scanlon

"Xbox 360 and iPhones are what's hot for me. I'm not a big fan of reading."
-senior Eric Burks.

"I love my iPhone 4 touch. It seems like it's the hottest thing out these days."
-senior Carlos Alanis.

"Slide phones are very popular now; flip phones are old news. I saw the movie 'Insidious' this past weekend and it was amazing!"
-senior Victoria Pachauer.

"Everyone is texting non-stop. It's very popular to the point it's all we do. VCR's, cassettes, and records are rare to even hear about."

2011

"New Ipods and phones are very hot right now. The school's technology and Polaroid cameras are not."
-senior Taylor Syren and junior Cara Maldonado showing off their cool slide phones.

"School lunches are not hot at all this year; however, Facebook seems to be the new thing."
-seniors Becky Pajonk and Vanessa Salgado.

"Cell phones and shoe styles are very hot; however, the cafeteria food is not."
-juniors Stephanie Lopez and Erin Nicole Edwards

Annie

An orphan, Annie, and her dog Sandy are placed in the lap of luxury for a week as a part of a publicity campaign for Oliver Warbucks. However, Annie's stay turns out to be much more than anyone had bargained for as she worked her way into everyone's hearts and learned a few things for herself.

Little orphans sing "Hard-Knock Life," a song about living a tough life and having to survive on their own.

Senior Lauren Richter is taken away by the president's secret service for disguising herself as Annie's mother to get money.

Senior Activities

Senior year is the year that all students look forward to throughout their education. It's the last year in high school before heading off into the real world, and students at Hobart High School get to enjoy many perks during their last year.

Besides being the "top dogs" of the school, most of the perks that seniors receive are during a week deemed "senior privilege week". Seniors get out of classes a few minutes early, enjoy a cookout and ice cream sundae bar, get out of school early.

Senior year isn't just about the perks, though. It's the last of many important high school events such as Homecoming, Semi-Formal, and Prom. It's about fighting for a top spot in the Hall of Scholars, helping with the senior gift, spending time with friends, competing in sports and music, and finally walking up to the stage to pick up a diploma. All of this closes this chapter of the seniors' lives and opens a new door to their futures.

Posing for a picture for the Hall of Scholars are the students who were the top 15 in the Class of 2011.

Below: Members of the senior class participate in the graduation ceremonies.

ACADEMICS

Dissecting cats in Biology II are juniors Ruby Perez, Lauren Balthasaitis, Susan Pindara, and Mallory Biski.

Techniques

Some teachers spice up their classroom's atmosphere with teaching methods not usually seen in schools. Many teachers prefer using hands-on and upbeat methods over traditional paper and pencil techniques because students are more likely to get involved. Teachers discovered that there is a better performance rate. Trends that are appearing at Hobart High School are games and activities as fun strategies for learning. Also, guest speakers and tablets are becoming popular within classrooms.

Middle right:
Preparing for an intense fly swatter game are sophomore Kristen Kennedy and junior Jaqueline Arnold. This game involves team work and self-knowledge.

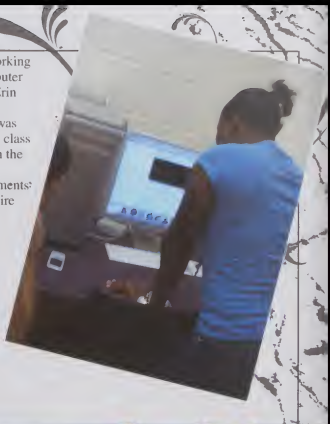

Directing a skit in theatre is sophomore Chardaney Stewart. Both directing and acting opportunities are offered in this class.

Above: Students work with preschoolers at Brickie Kidz. Brickie Kidz is a preschool run by Mrs. Zoladz. The class allows students to get experience with early childhood development.

Right: Working on a computer is junior Erin Edwards. Edwards was part of the class that put on the daily announcements for the entire school.

Right: Members of the JROTC present the flag at the pep rally. JROTC gives students first-hand experience at military training and experiences.

HANDS ON INSTRUCTION

Left: Students conduct an experiment in biology class. Science classes often give students instruction through a hands-on approach by using labs.

Below: Every 15 Minutes gives the law enforcement class and the EMT class chances to have some hands-on experience.

Working on the laptops gives students a chance to experience lessons in a different way.

Technology

Teaching class using the tablet is Mrs. Glover. According to her, the tablet is very easy to use and is extremely helpful.

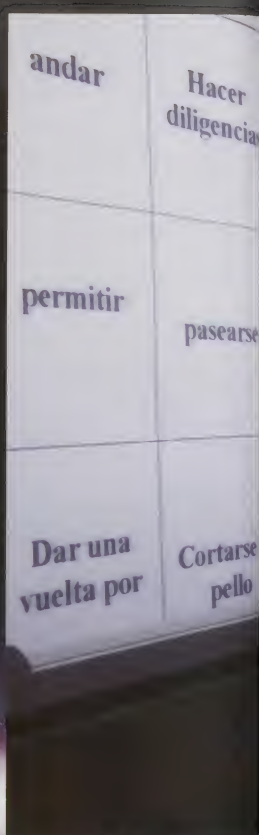

PLTW teacher Mr. Vermuelen prepares to print a project. He is the only one in the entire school that has the privilege of using this great machine.

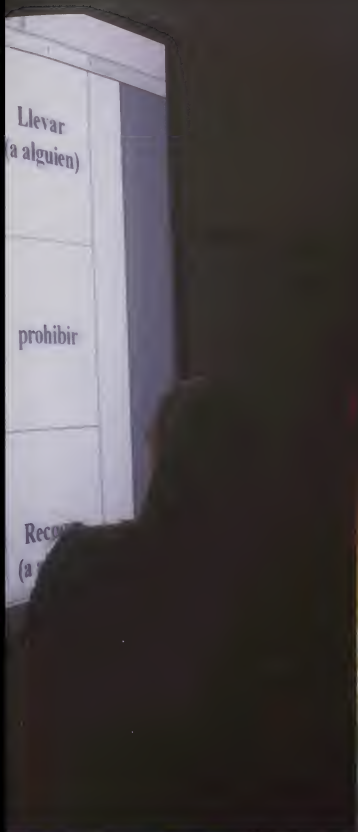

Punching in her answer in the responder is sophomore Andrea Gutierrez. This is one of the very few classes that uses this type of technology.

Presenting a project during his business class on the projector is senior Michael Bodamer. The projector is very useful for this class.

Students use the projector to show a presentation during class. There is one in every classroom, the Great Hall, and even the auditorium.

Sophomore Julian Collazo works out a problem using the writing tablet during class. Using this allows him to show the entire class his work.

Students in Mass Media prepare for the announcements. Without this advanced technology, daily announcements wouldn't be possible.

Band

Below: Julian Winborn, Seth Hamilton and Liz Bowers perform together.

Band is not just one class; it's many. Hobart High School offers numerous types of band classes for interested musicians. There are the different levels of band, along with different types such as marching band or jazz band.

Students involved in band classes work on perfecting their instruments during class and then have chances to perform at concerts throughout the school year, as well as competitions. Sometimes students practice after school, and marching band even meets during the summer to prepare for the 4th of July parade.

This year, student musicians were also visible at the farmer's market in downtown Hobart performing for the market goers. Some had the privilege of performing at the pep rallies during the school year along with the graduation ceremonies.

Choir

Hobart High School offers a variety of vocal music opportunities, both as a class and as an extra-curricular. In school, students can take a variety of choir classes where they can expend their vocal talents. Students perform at a few different points throughout the school year.

Outside of school, students can audition and join singing groups such as Wolfgang and Mystique. Both groups rehearse during non-school hours and perform numerous times throughout the year.

The most elite group, Wolfgang, is comprised of all females. This group sings the National Anthem at school functions such as pep rallies and sporting events. They also entertain with their musical ability throughout northwest Indiana. They have performed at charity events, nursing homes, and even graduation parties, just to name a few.

If you have any singing ability or interest, Hobart High School definitely has a class or activity where you can use it!

Kristina Soderquist

You were the sixth and last child in the Soderquist family.

In our home you learned everything you needed to know about life...

you put God first, then others, and finally yourself.

You've always been surrounded by those who love you most...

your parents, brothers & sister, relatives, friends,
and pets (lots of them!).

From a very young girl, you had a heart to reach out to others...orphaned animals, hurting friends, hurricane victims.

Your desire to help others has taken you to New Orleans, Mexico & Romania. You've experienced the joys of life, too...dancing across the ballet recital stage, winning "grand champion" at the 4H cat show, and becoming Aunt Kristina! All of these moments have prepared you for this grand moment...to graduate from Hobart and become the person God has designed you to be.

High School

Go into the world, Kristina. Go in God's grace and He will direct your path.

Love,

Dad & Mom

OUT of the night that covers me,
Black as the Pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll
I am the master of my fate:
I am the captain of my soul.
